Otani University, a well known center for the study of Indology and Buddhism, has a long history of about 350 years. Many internationally renowned scholars like Prof. D.T. Suzuki, Manshi Kiyozawa, Susumu Yamaguchi and Bunyu Nanjo (the compiler of the famous Nanjo Catalogue, an English catalogue of the Chinese Buddhist canon) have taught here and created a unique academic tradition. Otani University possesses a very rich collection of original manuscripts including an original wood-block print of the Peking Edition Tibetan Tripitaka and palm leaf manuscripts of the Pali Buddhist scriptures written in the Khmer, Burmese, Mon and Lan Na scripts.
